

United States: Hay

Yellow numbers indicate the percent each state contributed to the total national acreage. States not numbered contributed less than 1% to the national total.

- Major areas combined account for 75% of the total national acreage.
- Major and minor areas combined account for 99% of the total national acreage.
- Major and minor areas and state acreage percentages are derived from NASS 2007 Census of Agriculture data.